

I am concerned about the proposal to lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. Since its implementation (Jan 2002) the number of unwanted phone calls at home has dropped from several each day to a total of 2 in over 10 months. Even though our phone number is not publicly listed it is my opinion that the FCC's proposal to adopt a national standard for telephone privacy would be extremely detrimental to the residents of Indiana. Thank you.